

Mala Kapacee CTA, Solicitor Director of London Tax Network Ltd

Mala is a Chartered Tax Adviser, Solicitor and non-practising accountant. She set up London Tax Network in 2019 after building her experience and portfolio in top ten and boutique tax advisory firms.

She has experience in a range of situations – self-employment, property, owner managed businesses, non-UK domiciled individuals – and taxes; direct income and capital taxes as well as PAYE, VAT, IHT and SDLT.

Mala is a well-known tax author having written for several professional publications including Taxation Magazine, International Tax Review, Bloomberg Tax, Bloomsbury Professional and Tax Adviser. She authored a Tolleys Tax Digest and lectures regularly for professional bodies including the CIOT, CIMA, ICAEW and the ATT.

Professional Testimonials

"Mala provided assistance with a voluntary disclosure relating to one of our clients. I found her to be very professional with a high level of practical knowledge in making disclosures as well as technical knowledge. Will definitely seek her assistance in the future if the need for specialist investigation help is required."

Kevin Offer Partner and Head of Tax,
Hardwick & Morris LLP

"Although the TMA rules are not widely understood (and are often misunderstood), Mala responded within about 24 hours with a faultless analysis of the issues in the case. I knew that my "client" was in very safe hands."

Keith Gordon
Barrister, Temple Tax Chambers

About Us

London Tax Network is a tax investigations and dispute resolution specialist firm.

Interventions by HMRC can be expensive, stressful and intrusive. We aim to take the stress out of the situation by resolving disputes swiftly and with a mutually agreeable settlement.

We liaise with HMRC and the client to respond to HMRC's queries in a timely and appropriate manner, ensuring that responses are sufficient to allay HMRC's concerns and with a view to resolution without delay.

Our expertise means we know when HMRC are overstepping their limits and how best to protect the client. We are with professional advisers and assist them to resolve disputes.

Our Services

London Tax Network Ltd represents clients who are investigated by HMRC or those who wish to make a disclosure.

We also assist with over-payment claims, identifying claims and reliefs that may have been overlooked previously. This has been particularly useful for clients involved in bankruptcy proceedings.

Our key services:

- HMRC compliance checks and tax investigations/enquiries across all taxes;
- Code of Practice 8 and 9 investigations;
- Responses to formal (Schedule 36) and informal information requests;
- Voluntary disclosures to HMRC (including complex offshore structures and cryptocurrency);
- Mediation (Alternative Dispute Resolution) with HMRC;
- Appeals to the Tax Tribunals;
- Overpayment Relief Claims;
- Negotiating tax penalties; and
- Advising on "whitespace" narratives in tax returns to mitigate the risk of enquiry.

Client Testimonials

"I cannot speak highly enough of the exceptional service I received from Mala at London Tax Network regarding my tax matters related to property in Italy. From start to finish, her professionalism, reliability, and promptness were simply outstanding ...

Thanks to her guidance, what initially felt like an overwhelming situation was resolved with clarity and care. I'm incredibly grateful for her support and wouldn't hesitate to recommend her to anyone in need of expert tax advice, especially across borders."

Benedetta Monzani, Client

"I would not hesitate to recommend Mala. She is highly knowledgeable, prompt and very professional. The customer service was excellent with a prompt and quick turnaround. She has a very high level of knowledge and tax expertise. I felt confident in the quality of her advice which gave me the reassurance that I needed."
